Offense charged: Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substances

Date of Detention Hearing: November 10, 2016.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

1. Defendant has been charged with a drug offense, the maximum penalty of which

01 is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to 02 both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

03         2. Defendant was born in the United States although he lived in Mexico until age
04 10. He still has family contacts in Mexico. His criminal record includes a number of failures 05 to appear for hearing, with bench warrant activity. He has a significant marijuana habit, which 06 he indicates has caused him to miss court dates and medical appointments. At the time of 07 service of the bench warrants in this case, defendant fled the scene and was apprehended several 08 days later. According to case agents, he was smoking marijuana in a parking lot and was 09 arrested on outstanding warrants from local and county courts. Case agents also allege that a 10 backpack with a kilogram of cocaine was recovered in a backpack which they connect to 11 defendant.

12         3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no
13 condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant 14 as required and the safety of the community.

15 It is therefore ORDERED:

- 16         1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney 17         General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 18         persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- 19         2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with 20         counsel;
- 21         3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the 22         person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver

01 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection 02 with a court proceeding; and

- 03 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel
04 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United State Pretrial Services 05 Officer.

06 DATED this 10th day of November, 2016.
